

Futrell-Graham Nuptials Read in Baptist Service

In a mid-afternoon wedding at the First Baptist Church on Saturday June 23, Miss Patricia Futrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Futrell, 18023 Ermanita St. plighted her wedding promises with Simon Graham, son of Mr.

and Mrs. Alvie Graham, Conway, South Carolina.

Gowned in white lace over taffeta, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. A cluster of white flowers held the illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white orchids encircled by carnations.

Miss Sandra Baker, in yellow taffeta, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Sherry Helquist, Sandy Futrell, Judy Hannah and Diane White. Their dresses were of green and blue taffeta and each carried a carnation bouquet to match her gown. Peggy Knox, in yellow taffeta, was the flower girl.

Wally Futrell stood as best man and ushers were Cal McElhannon, Daniel Miller, Johnny Futrell, and Gordon Russell.

Mrs. Pat Ouwendijk played the wedding music and accompanied Imogene De Nunzio, soloist. The Rev. Robert Dehn conducted the vow exchange.

A reception was held in Fellowship hall at the church. After a honeymoon at 29 Palms, the couple is now at home at 1509 Greenwood, Apt. C.

The bride was a member of the 1962 North High graduating class.

Her husband, a graduate of Conway High School, is employed by an aircraft company in Gardena.

I haven't heard from the fellow since that day. Do you think perhaps he got a bad impression of my family and this ended our friendship?—HUMILIATED

Dear Humiliated: If this IS the reason the fellow has not called, then he's for the birds.

Your mother should have taught her sons better manners for THEIR sake, not to impress company. In any event, the behavior of your brothers should not have made one particle of difference to the young man.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a widow 54 years old. My husband passed away several months ago. He was a difficult man to live with but I kept my troubles to myself. More than once I told friends and relatives that the black eye and the cut lips on my face were from household accidents.

A man I've known for years has asked me to go out with him. His wife was a fine woman and I knew her before she died four years ago. Would it be sacrilegious to be seen with a gentleman only seven months after my husband's death? My sisters say I ought to be ashamed of myself for even considering such a thing. They claim I should stay in mourning for a full year.

What is your advice? — UNDECIDED

Dear Undecided: Mourning what? The shiners and the fat lip? It's how you feel like going out — GO.

To learn the difference between a marriage that "settles down" and one that "gets dull," send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "What To Expect From Marriage," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. C. 1962, Field Enterprises, Inc.

Because it specializes in commercial accounts, your bank is equipped to provide this convenience at nominal cost. But remember, excess dollars in your checking account lose earning power, so don't tie up more money there than you really need.
